A LEGACY OF LEARNING: ODESSA LIBRARY THROUGH THE YEARS

1930s–1940s

The Free Public Library Association of Odessa forms, offering memberships for $0.50/year. The library is later moved to City Hall under Miss Gladys DeMoss.

1950s

Odessa voters approve a city library with a 10¢ tax levy.

1960s

Odessa Library joins the Trails Regional Library System and moves to 129 S. Second St. Pat Updike and Elaine Miller serve as librarians.

1980s

The library moves to a permanent home at 107 W. Mason St.

2010s

After storm damage, the library board opts to rebuild. Designed by Sapp Design Associates and built by Fogel-Anderson, the new building opens January 18, 2016. Linda Washam serves as branch manager.

2020s

Kendra Redden becomes branch manager in 2022.
